What is Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day?

Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day gives communities all over New Zealand an opportunity to enjoy poetry off the page: to discover local poets, share their own work and explore the poet inside themselves. What makes the day work is a series of coordinated public events and activities created by independent event organisers from across the country. Each event aims to involve as many people as possible in celebrating the extraordinary world of New Zealand poetry.

The objectives of Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day 2017 are:

- To encourage access to poetry in a variety of communities
- To popularise poetry with new audiences
- To celebrate the unique and vibrant voices that make up New Zealand poetry
- To support new and emerging poets

Your event will be included in the official calendar of events promoted to the national media and the national administrator will be with you each step of the way.

When organising your event, you will need to decide on your:

- Event activity
- Date, time and venue
- Entry cost
- Audience
- Budget (see p.6)
- Promotion strategy (see p.8)

Think BIG. What would attract a large audience?

Event Guidelines

Your event must follow the official core criteria for Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day events. These are as follows:

1. The event or activity will provide an opportunity for the New Zealand public to experience, create or share poetry, and discover New Zealand poets and poetry books.
2. The event or activity will showcase poetry in an engaging, creative or entertaining way that is likely to attract an audience.
3. The event or activity will promote poetry, New Zealand poets and Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day to new audiences and the wider community. It involves a workable plan to use local and social media to promote each activity, then contributing poets and National Poetry Day itself, to the wider community and to a target audience. (see p.9)
  - i. As a local or regional event organiser, you will be required to create an entry for the national calendar of events for each of your registered activities, so that your event/s may be included in the online calendar of events on the Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day website, which is promoted to national media. You will also be required to create a digital poster for promotions on the Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day Facebook page and other media platforms.
4. Entry is free, koha or low-cost.
5. The event or activity takes place on Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day, 25 August 2017.
  - i. Prelude and wrap-up events are permitted in the week prior to and the weekend following Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day, provided they will promote the wider calendar of events and be clearly described as warm-up or wind-down/wrap-up activities.
  - ii. For competitions, submission dates should not precede the competitions calendar launch on 11 July, and should align with date of Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day in some way. (see p.8)
6. The event must not run at the same time as other events in the same area. Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day is a day of coordinated activities and in places lucky enough to have multiple events, the timetable should allow people to move from one event to another, sampling all that their local poetry scene has to offer. We recommend communicating with other event organisers in your community to ensure you do not create a calendar clash. You can contact the National Administrator to query available times or find out who you need to touch base with. Be prepared to be asked to move the time of your event if there is a timetable clash.

Support for Your Event

The following support will be provided to local and regional event organisers:

- Inclusion in the online national calendar of events that is promoted to the national media.
- An organisers' pack of planning and promotional tips, contacts, links and a guide to the process all the way through to reporting.
- Access to the password-protected event organisers' webpage where you will find all the information and digital resources you need, whenever you need them.
- Poster templates, visuals, logo and a press release template for your promotions
- Promotion of your digital posters on the Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day Facebook Page.
- Advice and support in developing your event, linking with the poetry community and bringing your event to successful completion – provided by the National Administrator.
- Exposure to national media coverage of the Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day calendar of events.
- The opportunity to apply for seed-funding (please be aware that available funding is limited).

Registering Your Event

Use the registration template on Page 16 to collate and draft information about your event before completing the online registration form available on our website.

Your registration should be submitted online by 5pm on Tuesday 24 May.

If you are registering multiple events, please provide full information for each activity in one registration form.

All registered events and activities will be included in the national calendar of events provided they meet the Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day event criteria.
By registering you agree to fulfil the minimum criteria for Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day activities.

Please note that your event registration must be confirmed with the National Administrator by Monday 19 June.

See → Page 22 for a step-by-step guide for Running Your Event or continue reading for information about Funding, Competitions, and Promoting Your Event.

Applying for Funding

You can apply for Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day seed-funding to get your event started, to cover the basics such as poet fees, promotions, venue hire or special materials.* You are encouraged to seek additional sponsors to help cover the full cost of running your event, should you require it.

* Please note that seed-funding may not be used to cover administrative time or alcohol.

Events will be considered for funding up to $200 regardless of where they take place, but will only be allocated to events with free, koha or low-cost entry. Preference for funding will be given to event organisers who register a number of events, activities with a large community audience, and events on the day itself.

Applications for seed-funding are submitted at the time of registration, using the online event registration form. Accordingly, they are due by 5pm on Wednesday 24 May, 2017.

Please note that:

- The registration form requires you to supply a budget detailing how funding will be spent.
- Any funding which may be awarded is GST exclusive.
- Those who are successful in gaining funding and who are registered for GST will need to provide an invoice that includes their GST and account info.

You will be advised whether your application has been successful by 5 June 2017.

Running a Competition

Writing competitions are a great way to encourage your community to get actively involved with Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day! You might wish to run a competition for your town, region or even the whole country. If you decide to run a competition, make sure you are prepared to run and promote the competition as early as possible. You should allow at least six weeks for entries to be prepared, and give as much notice as possible to potential participants.

Competitions require careful planning and organisation. Organisers often underestimate the number of entries they will receive, so make sure you have the resources to manage and process the demands of a competition before committing to organising one.

If you are organising a National Poetry Day competition, you will need to consider:

- Who will process entries and forward them to judges?
- Who will judge the competition?
- Will they need to be paid for their time?
Are they going to be available to deliberate and reach a decision when needed?
- What will be the timeframe for submissions and judging?
- Will there be a range of categories/age groups/themes?
- Will it be open nationwide (and promoted nationally) or will it be a regional competition?
- How will the winner(s) be announced and when? e.g. in your local newspaper and/or at a local event on Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day
- What kind of prize will be offered?
- Will the winning poems be published somewhere?
- How will copyright issues be managed?
- Will copies of unsuccessful poems be returned to the poets?

Your competition must:

- Promote the winners and winning poetry.
- Provide participants with a sample of published, contemporary New Zealand poetry to read for inspiration.
- Seek a high participant rate.
- Be open to email submissions.

See → Page 13 for a template of the Competition Calendar Blurb.
Please note that a draft blurb is no longer due upon application, and instead a draft is due by 19 June, then final copy due no later than 8 July.

The official Competitions Calendar will be launched on 11 July.

Promoting Your Event

Once you have planned and registered your event, it's time to publicise it! As a local or regional event organiser, you are required to create an entry for the national calendar of events for each of your registered activities, so that your event/s may be:

- included in the online calendar of events on the Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day website, which is promoted to national media
- promoted on the Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day Facebook page

See → Page 12 for a template of the Event Calendar Blurb.
Please note that a draft blurb is due by 19 June, then final copy due no later than 8 July.

You are also required to:

- Create a digital poster for online promotion (see p.14)
- Poster drafts are due by 12pm on 22 July 2017
- Final versions of posters are due by 3 August 2017

In addition to your calendar entry and online poster, we recommend that all event organisers:

- Create at least one online presence for your event in addition to the calendar and your usual website (e.g. Facebook event, Twitter profile, Eventfinda, The Big Idea), and include the URL hyperlinks in your calendar blurb
- Send a press release to local media to arrange promotional coverage of your event and the nationwide calendar

It is a requirement to:

- Include the names of all contributing poets in all major promotional materials.
- Prominently display the Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day logo and web address in all promotions.

We encourage you to also think of other creative ways to advertise, publicize and promote your event, both online and off! You might like to try poster runs, flyer drops, community notice boards, radio interviews, or even creating your own YouTube videos. We'll send you a handy pack of contacts and links to get you started once your registration is confirmed.

Executing Your Event

There's a lot involved in executing a successful Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day event, but it's also a lot of fun. Here are some tips to help you keep things organised.

Leading up to Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day, you should:

- Organise a few volunteers to help you out with your promotions and set-up
- Prepare a detailed timetable or a checklist which makes note of important times, actions, resources and people, and allows for contingency situations.
- Contact all your participating poets and make sure they are ready to go.
- Depending on the scale of your event, have a full production meeting or run through.
- Check you have the technical equipment you are going to need, and on the delivery of any hire equipment.

If you are planning multiple events, prepare a timetable or checklist for each one!

On Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day, you should:

- Work from your timetable or checklist to ensure your event runs as smoothly as possible.
- Make sure that poetry books are on sale (where possible).
- Remember to document your work and to take photographs, both for your own records and to assist with reporting.
- Remember to thank your participants and sponsors.

Please remember that you are also required to report on your event after it has taken place.

See → Page 11 for the requirements for Reporting Your Event

Reporting Your National Poetry Day Event

As an event coordinator, you are required to submit an event report at the conclusion of your event. This vital information will be summarised for inclusion in a report to the New Zealand Book Awards Trust and will help us to know what kinds of activities to encourage next year.

In your event report, you must provide:

- A description of your event
- An account of the demographics of your audience/participants
- Attendance numbers
- Your methods of event promotion
- Copies of media generated about/by your event
- Financial records of Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day funding expenditure (if you received funding)

It is also useful to document and evaluate your event for your own purposes. Internal reporting can help you to identify the strengths and weaknesses of your event, and provide a starting point for future events you organise.

An event report form will be sent to you once you have registered for Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day. Please note that your event report/s must be received by the National Administrator by no later than 15 September 2017.

Poster Guidelines

All official Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day events must have a digital poster for online promotions. We recommend that you also print posters and place them in your community and at local events. If you have a limited budget, think about creating a colour poster for online promotion and a black-and-white version for print. You will need to email a digital copy of your poster in .jpeg format to the National Administrator by the 22nd of July. You may be asked to edit your poster before it can be approved – it is recommended you use the checklist below and consult with the National Administrator on your draft prior to the final poster deadline.

Poster Checklist

Things to make sure you have on your poster:

- Event title (matched to calendar listing)
- Venue name
- Town
- Date and time
- Feature poet names
- Entry cost and booking info
- Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day Logo (please do not alter the logo in any way)

Look at other event posters to get a feel for what works (and what doesn't).
Remember to spell check!

Poster Templates

You are welcome to use any of the upcoming new 2017 templates on the website as a background for your Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day poster (you will need to be registered to login and access these). There will be three basic digital poster templates to choose from. Or you may choose to design your own poster. Note: it is essential you use the Phantom Billstickers National Poetry Day 25 Aug official logo on all posters, even if you choose to design your own. You will find the logo in the Organisers' Page.

To use a template, simply download the .pdf or .jpeg version you like most in the Organisers' Page, open it in Photoshop, Paint, Word or a similar editing programme, add your event details in the white space and you're good to go. The template files are 300 DPI so they are appropriate for printing. You may need to reduce the resolution to create web-friendly versions.

Email your poster in .jpeg format to the National Administrator before the final deadline for posters 22 July.

Planning Your Event – Step-by-Step

Vision and Ideas

It's important to develop a clear vision for your event, and to ensure that it reflects the primary objective of National Poetry Day 2017: to put poetry into places and formats where it can be enjoyed by New Zealand communities. When brainstorming your event...

- Consider what your organisation or business wants to achieve by being associated with National Poetry Day 2016. How are you going to make this happen?
- Try to devise a 'point of difference'. What will make your event different or stand out? This will assist you in getting media coverage and in generating an audience.
- Consider whether you want to have a theme for/around your event. Is there something distinctive about your area or group that you want to celebrate through poetry?
- Investigate whether you have any high profile poets in your area. Do you want to involve them? How will they work with your theme, or should you fit your theme around the poet(s)?
- Consider creating a balance with young emerging poets and more established poets to generate an exciting mix and encourage all age groups to attend your event.
- Ensure that your ideas are practical. Can you deliver on them in view of the time, resources and budget available?
- Devise a target audience profile and ensure that the event matches that profile in terms of content, time, venue and price.
- Think of a catchy name for your event, one that reflects your organisation or event activity. Ideally, the name should be a single word or brief phrase.

Planning

Thorough planning is the key to a successful event!

- Involve others and remember the importance of communication.
- Schedule regular planning meetings with your team of volunteers.
- Create a list of requirements and resources and have a contingency plan.
- Consult with those involved and create a timeline/checklist for actions and deadlines. This will ensure your plan is practical and deliverable.
- Prepare a list of contacts for everyone involved and distribute.
- Allocate and clearly communicate responsibilities.
- Contact your local bookshop.
- Pay attention to details. Continually check that deadlines are being met!

Budgeting

- Prepare a realistic budget based on available funds.
- Consider approaching local businesses for sponsorship to cover costs. Negotiate in kind sponsorship for things like venue hire, printing, gear hire, prizes and refreshments in exchange for logo presence on your promotional materials.
- Obtain quotes for goods and services to help you establish a realistic working budget.
- Continue to monitor and take responsibility for expenditure.
- Allocate a contingency of at least 10% for unforeseen circumstances.

Organising Your Venue

Book your venue early and make sure your participating poets know what they will be working with on the night.

- Ensure that the venue is suitable for your event and have a wet weather contingency plan if planning an outdoor event.
- If your event involves a reading, consider whether or not you require a sound system.
- Consider room layout – your audience will want to get close to your speakers and able to see the performers.
- Keep venue staff informed of your plans and requirements: Make sure they have copies of your promotional materials and place these in the venue in the lead up to your event.
- Check access to power and the lighting of the venue.
- Check and confirm all details and remember to re-check details just prior to the event.
- Ensure your venue has health, safety and emergency procedures in place and that insurance responsibilities are clarified.
